

A SPIRITED WHIG RALLY!

The Whigs of Albany assembled in great strength at the City Hall on Friday evening last, to hear General Waddy Thompson. Although there had been no time to give any notice of the meeting beyond announcing it in the papers of Thursday and posting a few handbills about the streets, the Whig "minute-men" of our city turned out in such numbers, that the City Hall, spacious as it is, could not contain the thronging multitude. The meeting was organized by the appointment of FREDERICK HUMPHREY as Chairman, and CHARLES FROTHINGHAM as Secretary. As soon as the Mayor took his seat, General Thompson was invited to the Speaker's stand, and being presented to the audience by Mr. Humphrey, was received with three hearty cheers.—General Thompson then proceeded to address the assembled mass in a speech of about an hour's duration, characterized by great felicity of expression, and exceedingly happy manner, frequent humorous illustrations, and occasional passages of heart-stirring eloquence. The speaker was especially happy in the comparison which he drew between James K. Polk and Henry Clay, both of whom, he said, he had known long and intimately. Referring to Mr. Polk's nomination he remarked that it probably surprised every man in the United States, but no one so much as Mr. Polk himself! Contrasting the public services of the two candidates, Mr. Thompson said that if a man should undertake to write a most prolix history of the country for the last 20 or 30 years, he would find it impossible to squeeze in Mr. Polk's name anywhere; while, on the other hand, the most succinct record of public events would necessarily contain the name of Henry Clay on every page and in almost every paragraph.

Of Mr. Clay himself, General Thompson spoke with great warmth and eloquence. He had known him, he said, long and well. He had been associated with him in public life, and had seen a great deal of him in the social circle and in the seclusion of home. But well and intimately as he had known him, he had never heard Mr. Clay speak of PARTY or of SELF. When discussing whether in public or private, questions of national policy or measures for legislative consideration and action, Mr. Clay's sole thought seemed to be what will best advance the honor, welfare, and prosperity of the COUNTRY. In the course of his remarks, General T. said that though differing with the mass of the Whig party on the tariff question, and entertaining sentiments of personal respect for the President, yet in the pending contest he was throughout for Mr. Clay, and in concluding his address, General Thompson made an earnest appeal to the Whigs everywhere to rally once more for the right and to make another decisive charge upon the enemy. The appeal was received by the audience in a way that evinced their disposition and determination to do their whole duty in November. At the close of General T.'s remarks, the meeting adjourned. Although called together, as it were, at the tap of the drum, it was one of the largest and most respectable meetings ever held in our city, and gave gratifying indications of the zeal and enthusiasm which now animates every TRUE WHIG HEART.—Albany Journal.

More than three hundred years have now elapsed since the medicinal qualities of Sarsaparilla have been known, and from that period until the present, various plans have been devised to make a perfect extraction of all its medicinal properties, but to our knowledge no preparation has come so near the standard of perfection as that of the Messrs. Sands. Their valuable Sarsaparilla is now celebrated throughout the length and breadth of our land, and is held in the highest estimation, by the medicinal profession generally. Various interesting and remarkable cures attest its virtues, and we would advise all afflicted with impurity of the blood, scrofulous or chronic affections to make a trial of this great Purifier of the corporeal man.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, June 16, 1844.

HAVE YOU A COLD, AND DO YOU WISH IT CURED?—Every body who has a cold wishes it to be cured beyond doubt, but the question arises how it is to be done? The answer is speedy; Peters' Cough Lozenges will effectually take away and destroy every vestige of a cough or cold, if taken in time. These Lozenges are formed by a combination of the most valuable ingredients known as beneficial to those afflicted with pulmonary complaints, such as asthma, bleeding at the lungs, pain in the breast, spitting of blood, constant coughing, &c., all of which herald the approach of consumption. These Lozenges are famous for the thousand benefits they have conferred throughout the Union in saving the lives of many afflicted, who would otherwise have perished by consumption. ## LOCAL NEWS.

STEAMBOAT EXCURSION.—Our readers should bear in mind the pleasure excursion in the commodious steamer Columbia, to-morrow afternoon, under the direction of the officers and members of the Washington Light Infantry. We are assured that no pains will be spared by these gentlemen to render the excursion pleasant and agreeable; and we anticipate a large assemblage of visitors, and particularly of the gentler sex, in this the first excursion of the season.

ALEXANDRIA STEAMBOATS.—We regret to learn that the misunderstanding between these boats still exists, and the public convenience and accommodation still trifled with to quite a vexatious extent. Several of our citizens were delayed at this city and at Alexandria for a tedious time after the hour designated by the advertisement, and the ringing of the bell, and the complaints against the management of the boats are daily increasing. Without laying blame on either side in particular, it is to be hoped that this jarring of interests may be compromised, and the boats be restored to the former plan of leaving the two towns simultaneously.

FUNERAL.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows attended, in full regalia, accompanied with music, the remains of their late brother, Mr. Truman, of Central Lodge No. 1, to their last sad resting place, on Saturday afternoon.

FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSION, AND COTILLON PARTY TO FORT WASHINGTON, MOUNT VERNON, AND BOWEN'S PAVILLION, AQUA CREEK.—The large and splendid steamer, SYDNEY, Capt. NEVITT, will leave Smoot's wharf, Georgetown, on the morning of the 4th, at 7 o'clock, the City at 9, Blackburn's wharf, Navy Yard, at 9, and Alexandria at 10 o'clock. The boat will stop a sufficient time at Fort Washington for passengers to view the fortifications, late improvements on the place, &c. The boat will pass Mount Vernon, and proceed to Aqua Creek, and will return to the city by 9 o'clock the same evening. Arrangements have been made with the proprietor of the above place to furnish dinners and a good supply of fish, crabs, oysters, &c. There will be a splendid collation on board for those who prefer it, at a moderate charge. Those wishing to be of the party, will be on board in time, as the boat will positively leave at the above-named hours. The Marine Band will be in attendance, as also a Cotillon Band, which cannot be surpassed in the District.

Gentlemen's tickets $1, ladies and children 50 cents. To be obtained at Harrington's Hotel, Navy Yard, at Gilman's Drug Store, Washington, of Capt. Nevitt, Alexandria, and at the boat on the morning of the 4th.
